

Name: _____

School: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

True / False Questions

Tick the correct box next to each statement

1. Which of these statements are true and which are false?

Tick (✓) the correct box next to each statement.

statement	true	false
Some desert plants have thick, waxy stems to reduce water loss.	☐	☐
Many desert animals are active at night to avoid the hottest part of the day.	☐	☐
Desert plants usually have large, thin leaves to lose more water	☐	☐
Some desert animals get water from the food they eat	☐	☐

[2]

Name: _____

School: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

2. 2. Animals and plants living in extreme cold

Which of these statements about adaptations in extreme cold are true and which are false?

Tick (✓) the correct box next to each statement.

statement	true	false
Some animals in cold places have thick fur or feathers to keep warm.	☐	☐
A thick layer of fat can help animals reduce heat loss	☐	☐
Plants in very cold places often grow tall with large, soft leaves.	☐	☐
Some plants in cold places grow close to the ground to avoid strong winds.	☐	☐

[2]

Name: _____

School: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

3. 3. Animals and plants living in waterWhich of these statements about adaptations in water are true and which are false?

Tick (✓) the correct box next to each statement.

statement	true	false
statement true false Fish have gills that help them take in oxygen from water.	☐	☐
Many aquatic animals have streamlined bodies to move easily through water.	☐	☐
Floating water plants may have air spaces that help them float.	☐	☐
All water plants have deep roots to take in water from the soil.	☐	☐

[2]