

Name: _____

School: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

Circulatory System

1. Role of Capillaries:

Capillaries are important because they allow oxygen and nutrients to move from the to body and allow waste to move from body into the

2. Human Transport System:

The human circulatory system is a transport system because it moves around the body to carry substances and remove substances.

Name: _____

School: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

3. Arteries and Veins:

Arteries and veins have different roles in the circulatory system because arteries carry blood from the heart, while veins carry blood the heart.

4. Vertebrates:

A fish, bird and human can all be described as with circulatory systems because they have and use to transport substances around their bodies.